The designs are based on contemporary interpretations of ancestral, natural and cultural concepts. The indigenous Mayan textile art, the Guatemalan landscape and its tropical fauna are strong sources of inspiration for the creation of its fabrics, which are the heart of Victoria Rivera's designs. The team involved in the crafting of the pieces are mostly textile artisans that are supported with social welfare programs that seek to better their life quality. Victoria Rivera's work highlight the presence of those who wear its pieces with their exotic, one of a kind and elegant designs, and with how captivating they are.
